

At The Mutual's 2018
On-Site Patient
Safety Seminars...
Shared Professional Experience and
Medicolegal Insights
Help Our Insureds
Reduce Risk

The Mutual values a collaborative approach to risk reduction. Our patient safety manager will come to your site and lead your team through real legal cases in tandem with a physician-educator.

TOPIC

Street Smarts for the Emergency Medicine Specialist 2018:

From allegations of missed diagnosis in an obese patient to delayed treatment in a pediatric patient to a trial over tPA administration, we will examine opportunities to reduce harm and avoid litigation.

Invite The Mutual to Your Meeting for a Great Discussion!

This seminar will require roughly 45-60 minutes, depending on the level of provider participation. Our seminars are free, and you'll earn CME credits for participating!

If you have questions or want to lock in a date for your site, please contact Richard Bernard, Patient Safety Manager, at (925) 949-0110 (office) or (661) 476-6216 (cell), or by e-mail at bernardr@tmrrg.com.

Accreditation Statement: CEP America is accredited by the Institute for Medical Quality/California Medical Association (IMQ/CMA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. CEP America takes responsibility for the content, quality and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

Credit Designation Statement: CEP America designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit as commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. This credit may also be applied to the CMA Certification in Continuing Medical Education.

Financial Disclosure: All program planners and speakers have no relationships with industry to disclose relevant to this activity.